

Jesus Christ my best friend

Jesus Christ is my best friend.

He doesn't like to stay above me and look down to me.

Then he can complain me the hole day.

He doesn't like, when I look up to him.

He just want to be my best friend.

He doesn't like to stay in front of me and call:

Follow me, here is the way, I know.

And specialy he doesn't like to stay behind me or smile in my face.

He just want to stay beside me and be my best friend.

Never he will take influence of my life, then he is my best friend.

Often I came in danger and call my best friend:

Come to help me!

Whau, this was close. I'm lucky and survive again and again.

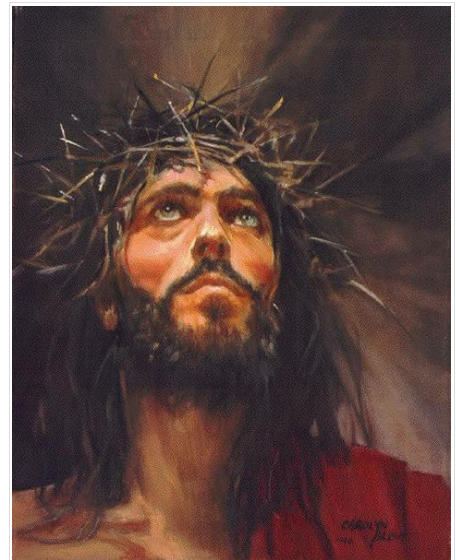

Sometimes I was so affraid in my life, that I just cry:

I need you, my best friend. I need my last Joker Card straight away to play.

It works always probertly my last Joker Card.

Exactly to say, it plays anyway by them self.

But Jesus Christ doesn't like to be a Joker Card.

He doesn't want to play Joker Games with me.
He just want to be my best friend.

When I'm sick, he not comes to healing me.
He still stay beside me and helps, when I'm trying to healing my self, like my best friend.
He not let happen wonders for me.
He helps me, that I let happen the wonder by my self.
What ever I ask him. He always answered befor I have finished my words.
So close is my best friend.
And when I'm worry I can loose my best friend, I please him:
Just don't leave me now!
And straight away I can see him in any human been.
How is this possible?
So many Jesus Christ can not have.
And when anybody leaves me already, I still can feel him, my best friend.
I haven't found him in the church.
And more and more they talk in my hear and explain Jesus
Christ, J just can feel him less, my best friend.
The onlyest place, where I have found him, is there, where I can feel my best friend.
What ever happen with me, he just looks in my eyes and says:
Look to me and you will see straight away your self, then I'm your best friend.
When somebody has experiences like this, he can never talk about.

But this is my best friend.
